

The National Independence Day

The community of Mikolow and numeros guests geathered yesterday to celebrate the 97th anniversary of regaining independence by Poland. We'd like to thank everybody participating in comemaration and everyone engaged in the organization. Special thanks to Voccata group for their patriotic songs concert and to the Town Culture Center in Mikołów for making their concert hall available.